[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, March 9.—Additional indications that the United States will be compelled to hold troops and warships in the vicinity of Mexico in the event that the revolutionaries ultimately be furnished with the results which reaches the War and Navy Departments to-day of determined opposition to the Huerta government in the interior and mountain regions of Mexico.
Officials of the War and Navy Departments also accept it as a foregone conclusion that the Wilson administration will recall Ambassador Wilson and will reverse his policy toward the revolution in Mexico.
The fact that a strong Mexican government exists in Mexico, and that professional President Huerta is far from

Condition Improving.—Mexico City, March 3.—The situation throughout the republic, outside the States of Coahuila and Sonora, is shown improvement during the past week. Zapatista outrages, though still of a formidable nature, have occurred with less frequency, and although Zapata himself is still keeping his cover, there is reason to believe that he is still at least in a receptive attitude.

The government emissaries who went to confer with Zapata in an attempt to lay a basis for his surrender have not reported. In the meantime seven hundred men, who were currently believed to be operating under his general command, have laid down their arms.

The solution of the Orozquista problem appears to have been found. Chiefs of the movement, Chihuahua are promising to surrender, and are offering their aid for the suppression of disorders in Sonora and Coahuila.

to yield as soon as they are assured of the passage by Congress of amnesty law.

Rebels are Suspicious.

Indicative of the suspicion which is prevailing doubtless many rebels who would otherwise be willing to quit the country and go to the United States, are the Campos, formerly with Orozco and Torreon, but now supporting administration, have refused to enter the city, and have refused to believe that this is a trick to bring them to the national capital for punishment. These rebels were willing to proceed to Mexico to take up the campaign against the Castejones, but would not trust themselves to trains.

The railroad and telegraph communication is gradually being restored. The first train left the city for the city of Juarez. It is announced at the railroad offices that rail communication will be re-established to-morrow.

General Antonio Rabago, Governor of Chihuahua, has been deluged with telegrams from Orozco's followers, going to Sonora and Coahuila to aid the government. Campa is anxious to take the campaign in Sonora, where he has many friends. He has received enthusiastic offers have been communicated President Huerta for his approval. Conditions throughout the State of Sonora are very favorable to the cause, the latest advices. Bankers and business men have offered the Governor funds to aid in quelling the disorders.

Government Profoundly Stirred.

Wanted City, and several of the Armies of the West, and General Blanquiere has requested a denial of the report that the loyalty of the soldiers has been decreased since the revolution. To the contrary, I may say, it has been increased. The confirmation of the contemplated secession of the northern states is constantly growing stronger. It is said that the government lays the blame for these reports on Governor Maymora, of Sonora, whose whereabouts are unknown. The Department of Foreign Relations has ordered the Mexican consuls along the American border to investigate the sources of those reports.

The dispatch printed in American newspapers to-day regarding the Guatemalan junta was telegraphed back here and has caused a stir among the state police. The members of the junta are not in the capital.

The War Department announces that news has been received concerning fighting in Coahuila. The situation over the Zapata land settlement still unsettled, and Zapata has not decided which course he will take. It is maintaining the rebel leader, De la O, on the war path.

Admiral of Wilson.
[Special To The Times-Dispatch.]
Mexico City, March 9.—Emilio Rassa, the newly appointed ambassador of the United States, wrote a book a year ago on democracy, in which he said that "W. Woodrow Wilson is the only man in the world who has the right to lead."

Calls Conditions Grave.
[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cairo, March 9.—Porfirio Diaz here to-day in the Khedive's apartment. He will embark at Alexandria tomorrow for Naples.

Assumes Responsibility for President Madero's Execution.
Mexico City, March 9.—Porfirio Diaz here to-day. He declared emphatically that he disapproved of the execution of President Madero.

"The situation in Mexico is grave," said the ex-President, "and particularly grave is the condition of the finances."

"When I resigned there was $100,000,000 in the treasury," said Diaz, "when Madero was deposed only $100,000 remained."

Diaz added that he had learned good authority of Mexico's intention to float a loan of $50,000,000. He said he would return here for three months.

Open revolt and scenes of disorder occurred among 250 Federal soldiers of Agua Prieta and the military officials there to-day gave warning to all Americans to leave the town.

To-day the best citizens of Agua Prieta generally fled to Douglas, while the drunken and rebellious soldiers paraded the streets crying, "Viva Maco!" "Viva Maytorena!" and "Viva Brown!"

Some of the soldiers actually engaged companions in arms and led to confusion and terror which held the town in its grip throughout the day.

Rioting Expected.

It is expected that military officers here are in bitter disagreement and rioting is expected. A message received at Nogales to-day from Mexico City, says that another division of troops, numbering 1,000 men, is expected to march against Hermosillo to attack the constitutionalists. Mobilization of rebel troops began last night continued through to-day. The government has organized and is now ready to take the field. The state troops commanded by trains for the treatment of the rebels. The State troop paymaster is employing the railroad men for their services.

Last night the soldiers of the revolution burned bridges on the Southern Pacific to within thirty-five miles of Nogales on the Arizona line, and free bridges on the branch running from Arizona to the Mexican border.
